[Faint handwritten Burmese script]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a signature or a name, located in the upper center of the top strip.
